Chapter 1 by Tori

One foggy night Katie woke up to a strange sound from outside she got out of bed and went outside it was dark and gloomy she went back inside but she heard it again she went back outside but no one was there.

Suddenly something moved she looked but there was nothing there then someone suddenly put a bag over her head the they knocked her out then she was dragged to a black van they took her to a house in the dark part of town. Then she woke up the person who kidnapped her was her ex-boyfriend his story is that one day Katie found out that he was a spy working for the other side she freaked out then she broke up with him so now he wants revenge. When Katie found out that her ex-boyfriend Flash but then someone shot him Katie freaked then she was released then she ran for her life through the foggy moonlight. Then she suddenly stop when someone pull her from the main road someone dragged her to the grave yard the she was put in the ground and buried alive the she stopped breathing and slowly saw the world for the last time. When the sun raised her parents came to wake her up but she wasn't there they waited two hours then her parents called the police the chief listened there was a full investigation then one foggy fall day they found her body in the grave yard.

15 year old Katie was found dead underground and that was the END of her but no one knows who killed her in the first place but the killer was her ex- boyfriends dad who killed her and also the killer of his son.
